

Like the fingers on our hand,
a pair of gloves is inseparable.

Throughout the ages, gloves have been considered to be the elegant finishing touch to an outfit. They represent refinement and highlight the wearer's personality. Apart from their role in protecting the wearer against the cold and dampness, gloves have become an essential fashion accessory. Since 1996, we have focused on offering full, attractive collections made in accordance with glove-making traditions. Our recognized know-how provides GLOVE STORY with a brand image that conveys the values of quality, modernity, know-how, and contemporary design. Like the fingers on our hand, a pair of gloves is inseparable.
